PSC Colloquium Recordings

This week the PSC had the distinct honor of hosting Dr. Jennie E. Brand, Associate Professor of Community Health Sciences from the UCLA Fielding School of Public Health as part of the PSC Fall 2017 Colloquium Series. Watch a recording of her talk "Unequal Families, Unequal Effects: How Parental Divorce Differentially Impacts Children's Educational Attainment," on our YouTube channel. Let us know if you are speaking and want us to record and share your talk via YouTube.

Beyond Expectations

In her book, Beyond Expectations, Onoso Imoagene delves into the multifaceted identities of second generation Nigerian adults in the United States and Britain. She argues that they conceive of an alternative notion of "black" identity that differs radically from African American and Black Caribbean notions of "black" in the United States and Britain. Instead of considering themselves in terms of their country of destination alone, second-generation Nigerians define themselves in complicated ways that balance racial status, a diasporic Nigerian ethnicity, a pan-African identity, and identification with fellow immigrants. Based on over 150 interviews, Beyond Expectations seeks to understand how race, ethnicity, and class shape identity and how globalization, transnationalism, and national context inform sense of self. More about Onoso Imoagene and her research here.
